Speaking of Picnics!

The time and place is tailor made for Tailgate Picnics! Over the years we've seen it all from Paddy Ann's Aiken elegance to Scotty MacKay's tailgate BBQ with finger lickin' ribs and beer butt chicken! From silver to plastic, gourmet to ready made, spread it out and settle in for your feast! Fall harvest abounds and every year the offerings make your mouth water!

If you're in it to win make sure to register your entry so the judges don't miss you and remember...

bribery is absolutely permitted!

If picnics aren't your thing there's always the Rip Roaring BBQ so you won't go hungry!

2010 will be remembered as the year that the Hunter Derby Series took flight in Canada. The Rip Gauthier Classic has been a true forerunner since 2003 affording horse and rider combinations the opportunity to gallop across a wide open field to a variety of both natural and stadium jumps. Framed in traditional elegance the day has established a legacy of excellence and generated over $100,000 to cancer care at Headwaters Hospital in Orangeville in memory of Rip Gauthier.

Last year the format was changed to include an Open 3'6 Division with 3'9 options and it was enthusiastically received. With the momentum that has been generated with the series I expect we will see even more entries this year.

For those who have been competing in the series it will be the perfect preparation for the final at the RAWF.

For those wanting to make the leap from standard hunter classes to the more challenging and fun derby ride there could not be a better or less threatening forum in which to get your feet wet at either 3' or 3'6 !

For the non riders the day has great curb appeal too! Enter the Tailgate Picnic (or not), cheer on your favourites, do a little shopping at the Silent Auction, enjoy a morning novelty coffee or midday cocktail - I promise you a fun day!
